

Aissatou Mijiza and Michael Weaver marry

The Allen A.M.E. Memorial Church on Larchwood Avenue was the beautiful setting for the recent wedding of Aissatou Mijiza A/K/A Gwendolyn E Warr and Michael S. Weaver. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Joseph E. Warr of Spruce Street. The bridegroom's parent is Mr. Otis R. Weaver of Baltimore Maryland. The officiating minister was The Reverend William H. Smallwood.

The bride was serene and lovely a formal A-line long sleeved wedding gown, with lace inlets at the cuffs. The V-neck and bodice were highlighted by lace appliques and white beads. A large embroidered lace design was centered on the train and the hem and train was delicately trimmed in lace. She also wore a waist length veil and a flowered headpiece.

The bride's attendants were Barbara Gibbs, Yvonne Hardy, Jacquelyne D. Moore-Asbury, Valerie King-Henry and Marva Weaver. Amber Spring Redd acted as flower girl. The bride's maids tea length dresses were designed by Bill Levkoff and fashioned in rose colored with satin underslips. Satin sashes were adorned with a rhine-stone pin. The necklines plunged into a low "V" in the back.

The groom's men were George Mayo, of New York and is Godfather of the bride; Gene F. Thomas from Baltimore; Natahn
(Continued on Page 8-C)

Wedding announced

(Continued from Page 5-C)

Pringle of Harrisburg, PA; Hubert P. Jones Jr., Harrell Miller of Baltimore and Joseph A. Warr. Natahn Pringle III acted as ring bearer.

The bride is a field services officer with the Neighborhood Reinvestment Corp., and she attended Philadelphia College of Art graduating with an B.F.A. and Maryland Institute College of Art with a M.F.A.

The groom is a graduate student who writes poetry and plays. He earned a B.A. from the University of New York and will receive his M.A. from Brown University in 1987.